

Every Christmas we remember that Jesus was born. Jesus is God's Son.

One night, in the hills above Bethlehem, some shepherds were looking after their sheep. It was a quiet night, an ordinary night. The shepherds were starting to go to sleep.

The shepherds were really happy! "Let's go to Bethlehem and see the baby God has told us about." They were very excited that angels had told them about God's Son.

