

The wise men set off towards Jerusalem. But before they got there, God told them in a dream not to go back. Herod wanted to get rid of Jesus!

So, the wise men went home by another road. They did not want Herod to harm Jesus. They were happy because they had seen Jesus, and because they had kept Jesus safe.

